ASSESSING THE RISK, REWARDS, BENEFITS AND CHALLENGES OF IMPLEMENTING SOUND BEST PRACTICES

Incisive Insights Newsletter – January Issue

Happy New Year! We want to start the year with a clear understanding of your 2022 goals and priorities. To that end, we invite you to participate in our research study to tell us what is most important and what you hope to gain when making decisions about spreadsheet management.

Is your business considering, building, or using a spreadsheet management program? We are interested in the risks, rewards, benefits and challenges of implementing your program. Our survey should take no longer than 5 minutes to complete, and all responses are anonymous. All respondents have the option to receive a complimentary copy of the final report.

I wish you all a successful year.
